

marmalade club terms & conditions

- Marmalade Club is owned and run by Young Marmalade Limited
- To become a member, you must be based in the UK, and aged between 17 and 25-years-old
- Members agree to be contacted by email when opportunities for blog posts, videos, photos, PR quotes, and social media takeovers arise.
- Members will only be considered for opportunities if they respond within a timescale stated in the email.
- Marmalade reserves the right to decide which members are offered which opportunities; it won't be on a first come, first served basis.
- Rewards differ between tasks, and will be advised as opportunities are announced.
- Marmalade reserves the right to change the opportunities available and the rewards offered, at any time.
- Members will adhere to the guidelines for content creation, which will be sent via email along with opportunities, and pinned to the Marmalade Club Facebook group.
- Rewards will be sent out upon completion of the task, and can be chosen from all options at <https://www.highstreetvouchers.com>.
- Members cannot undertake paid/incentivised work for any Marmalade competitor companies, including Ingenie, Admiral/Veygo, Adrian Flux, Aviva, or any other company providing similar products and services.
- Members do not have to be Marmalade customers in order to work with us.
- Application to the Marmalade Club is open to all UK residents, except employees of Provisional Marmalade Ltd and Young Marmalade Ltd and their affiliated companies, their families, agencies and people contracted to Provisional Marmalade Ltd or Young Marmalade Ltd.
- Members will be given the option to join our closed Facebook group, however this is not mandatory and will not impact on their offers of opportunities.
- Members can leave the Marmalade Club at any time.
- Marmalade reserves the right to remove members from the group if deemed necessary.
